

Charging and Remissions Policy

This policy has been impact assessed by Mrs Claire Rowley in order to ensure that it does not have an adverse effect on race, gender or disability equality.

Date of Policy: June 2026

Review Date: July 2026

Signed – Chair of Governors – Mrs Sally Shewell

Signed – Headteacher – Ms C Rowley

Purpose

The purpose of the policy is to ensure that, during the school day, all children at Plaxtol Primary School have full and free access to a broad and balanced curriculum.

The school day is defined as 8:45am to 3:15pm.

Definitions

Charge: a fee payable for specifically defined activities.

Remissions: the cancellation of a charge which would normally be payable.

What was consulted?

The policy has been informed by the Maintained Schools Governance Guide (published 19 November 2025).

Roles and responsibilities of Headteacher, other staff, governors

The Headteacher will ensure that the following applies:

During the school day

All activities that are a necessary part of the National Curriculum plus religious education will be provided free of charge. This includes any materials, equipment and transport to take pupils between the school and the activity. It excludes charges made for teaching individual pupils or groups of up to four pupils to play a musical instrument.

Voluntary contributions will be sought for activities during the school day which entail additional costs. In these circumstances no pupil will be prevented from participating because his/her parents cannot or will not make a contribution. Children of parents who do not make a contribution will not be treated any differently. If a particular activity cannot take place without some help from parents, this will be explained at the planning stage. An activity may be cancelled if not enough voluntary contributions are collected.

Optional activities outside of the school day

We will charge for optional, extra activities provided outside of the school day. Such activities are not part of the National Curriculum or religious education, nor are they part of an examination syllabus.

Education partly during the school day

If a non-residential activity happens partly inside the school day and partly outside of it, there will be no charge if most of the time to be spent on the activity falls within the school day.

Conversely, if the bigger proportion of time spent falls outside of the normal school day, charges will be made. When such activities are arranged parents will be told how the charges were calculated.

Residentials

Charges will be made for board and lodging, with special arrangements for pupils who qualify for free school meals and whose parents are in receipt of income-related Employment and Support Allowance, support under part VI of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999, Child Tax Credit, Working Tax Credit run on, Universal Credit and the guaranteed element of State Pension Credit.

Other charges will be made to cover costs when the number of school sessions missed by the pupils total half or more of the number of half-days taken up by the activity. In such cases parents will be told how the charges were calculated.

Calculating charges

When charges are made for any activity, whether during or outside of the school day, they will be based on the actual costs incurred, divided by the total number of pupils participating. There will be no levy on those who can pay to support those who can't. Support for cases of hardship will come through voluntary contributions.

Parents who would qualify for support are those who are in receipt of income-related Employment and Support Allowance, support under part VI of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999, Child Tax Credit, Working Tax Credit run on, Universal Credit and the guaranteed element of State Pension Credit.

The principles of best value will be applied when planning activities that incur costs to the school and/or charges to parents.

Arrangements for monitoring and evaluation

The finance governor on behalf of the governing body will monitor the impact of this policy by receiving a financial report on those activities that resulted in charges being levied, the subsidies awarded (without giving names) and the source of those subsidies.

Guidance notes

This policy is based on the following Guidance Notes

The governing body cannot charge parents and pupils for any activity unless it has drawn up a charging policy. Moreover, when made, charges per pupil cannot exceed the actual costs incurred, which mean that pupils who can pay should not be charged extra to cover the costs of those who cannot afford to.

The governing body must not charge for any activities which take place when the school is actually in session, excluding the break in the middle of the day. The exception is musical instrument tuition for individual pupils or pupils in groups of up to four, as long as such teaching is not an essential part of the National Curriculum or a public examination syllabus being followed by the pupil(s).

If the school wishes to run an activity during the school day for which it would need contributions from parents or others, it can invite voluntary contributions. However, no child should be excluded from such activity because his or her parents cannot or will not contribute.

The school can charge for optional, extra activities provided mainly or wholly outside school hours as long as such activities are not an essential part of the National Curriculum or religious education. Activities which are an essential part of the syllabus for an approved examination must be provided free.

Further guidance can be found in the Maintained Schools Governance Guide and departmental advice Charging for School Activities.
